2.

1. RE-USE:

How cute is this! Make this little pot yourself – using river rocks and some chicken wire – perfect for a country garden, or even a very industrial space.

2. ANTIQUE:

Who doesn't love sitting in a backyard looking at these romantic pots. Perfect for your herbs, flowers, or small shrubs. So feminine, always a great way to incorporate your style. You can find these at Pottery Barn.

3.

4.

3. LASER CUT METAL:

My favorite find this year! These come in various sizes and patterns, what I love most is you can use the bottom portion as ambient lighting - love this! Find these at Bysteel.com

4. STAINLESS STEEL / CHROME:

Modern in both concept and material – attached ground plate reflects the sky and defines this planter as artwork. Truly a statement, can be found at allmodern.com.

7.

8.

7. TEXTURE:

Look for interesting textures, mix it up for a chic mix of sizes and shapes. Place them on your table, along the deck, mix them in with the shrubs in your flower beds. Inside or out, these textural pots are sure to please you year round. Found at potterybarn.com

8. BOLD:

Don't want to deal with potted plants? Go bold with these gorgeous oversized pots! Collect them paired with up-lights for optimum affect – even add a water feature. What a gorgeous way to accent your yard. Look to your local landscape supplier for unique art pieces like these, some can even special order in for you.

9.

10.

9. TERRACOTTA:

Don't want to stray from timeless – then stick with terracotta. They are an investment, but definitely worth it. Terracotta planters add that aire of timeless beauty. Terracotta pots can be found at your local supplier or yard sale.

5.

5. WHIMSICAL:

Why not? This is such a fun piece – if your home is all about glamour or you want some plants on your high rise balcony – this is perfection! Giddyspinster's can be found at etsy.com.

6. SUBTLE SHAPES:

I love lotus flowers and orchids – pure serenity that brings calm and soothes the daily stresses away. This organic shaped flower pot would definitely make it into my personal garden. These specific shapes tend to be by special order only or found at antique shops. If you find one, let me know!
