Cabanas Law Firm

January 2021

Did you start 2021 with a resolution to make a positive change in your life? Have you ever wondered why we make New Year's Resolutions, year after year? The short answer is tradition -- New Year's Resolutions can be traced back to the Babylonians. They made promises in hopes that their Gods would shower them with good fortune in the coming year.

We all see the New Year as a clean slate and a fresh chance to wipe away the negatives of our past. Wanting to change is the first step, but to make it stick, you may need to share your resolution with others.

We welcome the opportunity to talk with you and to help you achieve your resolutions!

Thank you for your support of our firm. If you know anyone else who could use the information in this newsletter, feel free to forward it on to them. If you have any questions about this month's topic, please contact us today.

Have a wonderful day!

5 Myths About Holiday Co-Parenting

How was the holiday season for you? Did you make a resolution to make some definite changes for next year?

For some co-parents, the most wonderful time of the year can feel like the exact opposite. It may be the time of the year where you have to see or communicate with your ex the most. It can be the time of the year where you are most reminded of the way things used to be ...
