Cabanas Law Firm

September 2020

Good Morning!

In this month's edition of our e-newsletter, we reveal some of the notable factors that judges generally consider when it comes to the best interests of a child.

Thank you for your support of our firm. If you know anyone who could use the information in this newsletter, feel free to forward it on to them. If you have any questions about this month's topic, please contact us today.

Have a wonderful day,

Child Custody: The "Child's Best Interest" Standard

Deciding on child custody arrangements (officially referred to as the "parenting plan" in Florida) is usually the most contentious part of any divorce. It's possible, though, for you and your spouse to come up with a parenting plan on your own or with the help of a mediator...

COVID-19 Update

WE ARE OPEN AND OPERATING

While courthouses remain closed, our legal team is continuing to attend hearings, mediations and certain trials by Zoom.

With kids going back to school online, online meetings have also become necessary for many of us to have flexibility with work and appointments, so please feel free to request your meeting by Zoom as well!

Meanwhile, Sergio has been busy filming new videos about the questions most people ask. He is now creating these videos in Spanish as well. We built out a filming studio to allow him to easily pop in and out between his appointments. Check it out the photo we snapped of Sergio in action!
