

Coral

feminine and strong, coral is back...

...WITH TEAL

Look to nature to give us inspiration for an amazing colour palette. Blue should resemble the warm blue of the Caribbean ocean, while the coral can be intense and saturated.

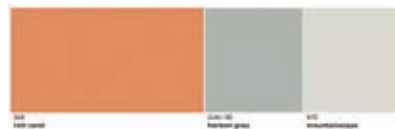

PART PINK, ORANGE, RED AND PEACH – CORAL IS A SHADE THAT RESEMBLES THE INNOCENCE OF BLUSHING.

I remember coral as a colour my mom's friends used in interior design – you know, homes that had the “special occasion room only” rooms that were used for church teas and bridal showers. You always had to be on your very best behavior to be allowed in there.

I was in awe of these rooms, sitting pretty in my new dress with matching shoes, gloves and purse, sipping tea...

There is something wonderful about coral, it flatters pretty much every skin colour. Women tend to shy away from it because of the close association to pink, but used sparingly is an amazing colour.

Coral goes with browns, greys and black. Feeling more adventurous, pair it with teal – it's natural compliment. My favorite combination is coral with charcoal and cream – classic and timeless.

...WITH GREEN

Talk about taking cottage country to the next level – add a splash on an occasional chair or paint inside a curio cabinet – brilliant!

...WITH CHARCOAL

How fun and adventurous is this – bold, whimsical, fun. This room is built with a sophisticated neutral background – then BAM your hit of coral in your

...WITH BROWN

The perfect way to take boring beige to the next level. Push your coral colour into the warm red tones, helps to maintain sophistication – add gorgeous satin drapery, toss cushions and an occasional chair in your tone of coral/red – wow, what a transformation!
