to bring easter into your home...

Blue: Serene, calming, restful. Pulling a soft robin's egg blue from this gorgeous easter egg, we inject blue on the walls of this family room – subtle additions of black and gold accessories are really important to keep this room from looking too immature.

Lavendar: Wealth, wisdom, spirituality. An eclectic mix of this and that, which is simply lovely – lavender and soft hues of blue – the perfect girls' condo, or boudoir.

Orange: Energy, excitement, warmth. Orange is such an amazing colour – can be equally feminine or masculine. I love how they've paired this with a tomato red which has a lot of orange in it, takes it all the way to feminine town.

Green. Tranquil, health, vitality. If you're afraid of colour, green is the new neutral – whether you're bold enough to go citrine green (shown here), or prefer a soft, watery green, like a flower stem in a vase of water, green works because we find it all around us in nature. Makes any wood look alive and vibrant –
