Located in south central Michigan, along the US-12 Heritage Route, the area is brimming with outdoor recreation, unique attractions, quaint downtowns, stunning architecture and a whole host of family fun.

Soak in summer on one of the area's more than 100 freshwater lakes. Visitors can travel from one lake to another through the chain of lakes. Coldwater Country is home to not only one chain of lakes but two — North Chain of Lakes and South Chain of Lakes. Reel in the catch of the day, enjoy a leisurely pontoon ride, or kayak the Union City Heritage Water Trail, just one of nine water trails in Michigan.

Hang out at the beach at The Aqua Pit, an inflatable aquatic playground featuring a multi-tiered obstacle course in the water, kayaking, paddle boarding and more. It's tons of fun for the entire family!

When you need to get out of the sun, head over to the Adventure Zone for mini golf, go-carts, laser tag and a virtual reality lounge. Kids will delight in the play and learning at the Children's Museum of Branch County. Children and their families can paint a masterpiece at Picasso's Art Studio, dig for dinosaur fossils, become a dentist, put on a play and more! Take a ride on the rails with the historic Little River Railroad's 110-year-old steam engine train.

Enjoy nature with a visit to the Critchlow Alligator Sanctuary. Observe these amazing reptiles during guided tours and animal interactions. Walk through the swamp and feed the alligators, or just watch them bask in this reptilian paradise.

The area features five antique malls including the Allen Antique Barn, boasting two floors and more than 25,000 square feet of treasures.

The beautiful architecture of the Tibbits Opera House makes it a treat to visit year-round. Tibbits offers a diverse selection of arts and entertainment throughout the year. The Wing House Museum is a three-story Second Empire mansion listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

The Ally Challenge at Warwick Hills

It feels like summer in Flint

Variety is the spice of life in Flint & Genesee. Enjoy an outdoor adventure on land, water, or on the links. Immerse yourself in culture through stage, screen, or a quiet gallery. Just an hour's drive from the Canadian border, Flint offers a unique, urban destination, while the rest of Genesee County provides endless opportunities to explore.

Outdoor Adventure

For those craving sunshine, Flint & Genesee is home to Michigan's largest county parks system, which covers 11,000 acres of outdoor space. The high points of our parks system include the 383-acre For-Mar Nature Preserve and Arboretum, which has one of the country's largest treehouses built by Animal Planet's Treehouse Masters. Miles of hiking trails and waterways meander through tree-lined parks, quaint villages, and bustling downtowns. Many hiking trails are multi-use and paved to meet visitors with special needs and accessibility standards.

Public access sites throughout the county make boating and kayaking easy and accessible. Kayak and canoe rentals are available for all skill levels. With more than 70 lakes and two different river systems, the most difficult decision is deciding where to spend a day taking in the natural beauty of Genesee County.

Great Golf

With over 11 national-caliber, public golf courses, Flint & Genesee offers a tailored golf experience for every age, bud-

Back to the Bricks classic car show get, and skill level. From public Flint city courses to 18-hole championship courses, enjoy an afternoon of beautiful weather, scenic views, and some of the best golf in Michigan. Discounted, overnight golf packages are available.

For those interested in professional golf, Flint & Genesee is proud to once again be host to a major PGA event. The Ally Challenge presented by McLaren returns Aug. 22-28 at Warwick Hills Country Club in Grand Blanc. During this PGA TOUR Champions event, spectators can see some of their favorite golf champions at reasonable rates for any budget. The hospitality and food options at this tournament will not be outmatched by any professional golf event. More information is available at theallychallenge.com.

Cultural Gems & Festivals Abound

For a taste of arts and culture, visit the Flint Cultural Center, home to the newly renovated and expanded Sloan Museum of Discovery (opening July 2022), as well as the state's second-largest art museum and the nation's most technologically advanced planetarium. Plan to catch a live performance or nostalgic movie at Flint's historic Capitol Theatre, originally built in 1928. Or take in a performance by the Flint Symphony Orchestra or a national touring Broadway show at The Whiting.

Celebrating over 100 years of community service, the Flint Institute of Music (FIM) transforms people and community through the power of the performing arts. Music Around Town is a long-standing series that helps Flint welcome in the summer season with free to low-cost performances. "Late Night at the FIA" (Flint Institute of Arts) happens every Friday night from 5-9 p.m. July 8 – August 26. All activities are free to visitors, with special pricing on food and drinks.

Festivals are back in full swing this year! As the birthplace of General Motors, Flint & Genesee knows cars. So, it is no surprise that one our largest annual events is an epic week-long classic car show called Back to the Bricks (Aug. 15-20). Music festivals like the Flint Jazz Festival (July 29-31), Flint Drop Fest (Aug. 13) and 80s in the Hole (Sept. 9) offer great live entertainment and highlight local and national talent. Several art festivals, fairs and shows give makers (and shoppers) plenty of opportunities to revel in unique handcrafted items.

For basketball fans, the Gus Macker Tournament (July 30-31) is returning to downtown Flint for two days of three-on-three games, featuring players of all experience levels. And the HAP Crim Festival of Races (Aug. 27) provides runners a unique opportunity to tour historic Flint neighborhoods and race down the bricks of Saginaw Street. Additionally, the Genesee County Fair (Aug. 22-28) has been a family tradition since 1850. Visit exploreflintandgenesee.org and start planning your trip to Flint! 🍷

Sloan Museum of Discovery opens in Flint

After three years of major construction the new $30 million Sloan Museum of Discovery will open to the public July 16, 2022. The former Sloan was originally built in 1966 at 58,000 square feet and was known as the Alfred P. Sloan Panorama of Transportation. Initially, it was known for the historic vehicle collection that chronicled Flint's rich automotive heritage. The expansion added 49,000 square feet, allowing enough space to hold four permanent hands-on galleries focusing on hands-on science and history, plus a large traveling exhibit space. The galleries encourage visitors of all ages to immerse themselves in imaginative play and have fun while learning.

The four permanent gallery spaces each have a distinct hands-on focus. Discovery Hall science gallery covers over 11,000 square feet of Earth and physical science interactives, all linked to state science standards. It's home to the Discovery Lab Maker Space, Great Lakes Water Table and a three-story "Spaceship Earth" climbing structure. Hagerman Street Early Childhood Learning gallery was developed in concert with Head Start and Great Start curriculums and tricycles. This child-sized neighborhood is laid out in a village theme to encourage early childhood complete with roundabouts. It includes a three-story ABC Tree House, a grocery store, hardware store, post office and other kid-sized retail stores.

The History Gallery takes visitors from its earliest entrepreneurs, the indigenous tribes who traded with the early settlers, through WWII and up to the Flint Water Crisis. One of the dramatic features of the History Museum is a still-working Hellcat Tank, made at Buick City during WWII.

Adjacent to the History Gallery is the Durant Gallery, a vehicle exhibition hall that will showcase 15-20 of Sloan's 105 historic and future vehicles on a rotating basis.

The new museum will also be an economic driver. For instance, the Maker Space will promote workforce development with tips on helping to attain and retain talent. There are also new visitor amenities like a Coffee Beanery Café, community meeting rooms and event spaces for public use. It is estimated to draw over 225,000 tourists per year locally and nationally.

Todd Slisher is Executive Director of The Sloan Museum of Discovery and neighboring Longway Planetarium, recalls how the three-year construction was not without hiccups. Slisher explained that after breaking ground in June 2019, they had to deal with the global pandemic and ongoing supply chain issues. Even so, the new museum's opening date is only a few months off their original time line.

When asked why the region needed a new Sloan, Slisher noted that he and the staff recognized the former building was not meeting the needs of the community. The exhibits were long overdue for a major update that would be more inclusive, welcoming and interactive. This was a collaborative effort years in the making. It began with listening tours and focus groups that provided helpful feedback.

Sloan Museum of Discovery opens to the public on July 16. As a world-class hands-on history and science museum, it will likely contribute to many generations of inspired learners and leaders. For more information or tickets, go to www.SloanMuseum.org.

The Lansing River Trail

BY RENU SAGGAR

Love Lansing like a local

If you're planning a little getaway, it's always fun to try a new destination, don't you think? Sure, old favorites are always a nice and safe choice, but maybe it's time to shake things up. Why not plan a trip to Michigan's capital city, located right in the heart of the state and a short drive away? A small sized city, Lansing is filled with all kinds of exciting travel opportunities. Visitors can find boutique shopping, diverse dining, and fun family activities all summer long!

Lansing is Michigan's capital where you can explore the majestic and historic State Capitol Building with free tours available Monday through Friday. A few blocks away find four floors of Michigan history at the Michigan Historical Center. Visitors can walk through a replica copper mine, a lumbering camp and a one room schoolhouse among many other exhibits. Because Lansing was the birthplace of Oldsmobile, there's a museum with over 60 vehicles dedicated to locally produced cars and trucks at the R.E. Olds Transportation Museum.

All these attractions are in the downtown area along with a minor league baseball team the Lansing Lugnuts, and the terrific family-friendly Impression 5 Science Center. Find great casual dining spots, breweries and distilleries — all within a walkable downtown.

Don't leave without a trip to the Peanut Shop. This former Planter's peanut store is a step back in time with peanuts and other nuts roasted daily, trail mixes and an assortment of old-fashioned candy behind the glass counter.

Boutique shopping more to your liking? Head to Old Town on the north side of the city. Connected to downtown by the Lansing River Trail and located on the banks of the Grand River, Old Town is a compact area of just two streets packed with an abundance of delightful boutiques offering unique clothing stores, art galleries, a home and garden shop, stringed instrument store and more! Discover locally owned restaurants like MEAT BBQ, Creole, Pablo's and Ozone's Brewhouse among others. Love pinball and arcade games? Don't miss The Grid, an arcade/bar that will be right up your alley.

Lansing is Michigan's festival capital with close to 60 festivals each year, so you can schedule your trip around an upcoming event. Lansing Alive! is taking place July 16th, 2022, at Rotary Park with live music, carnival and yard games, cornhole and dodgeball tournaments and waterfront activity! Come out for the day to see all the ways Lansing is alive with activity and great people! Upcoming festivals include the Car Capital Auto Show and Michigan's Bacon Festival, both in downtown Lansing on July 30th. August 4-6th is the Michigan JazzFest in Old Town while August 6th is the 49th Annual Island Art Fair.

And if that isn't enough, the Greater Lansing region makes the perfect family destination with multiple entertainment centers with indoor go-karting, bowling, escape rooms, laser tag, axe throwing, rage rooms and so much more. And if golf is your game, find 30 courses within 30 miles that offer championship courses at affordable rates. With all these options, it's easy to make Lansing Michigan your next getaway. 🍷

Traverse City has 100s of miles of shoreline

Traverse City buzzes with “Bs”

Three “Bs” define Traverse City, Michigan in the summer: Bikes, Boats and Beaches. And just because it’s fun we tossed in one more — a few brews to cap the day. This vacation getaway in northwest Michigan is defined by the water. Receding glaciers gouged deep fingers into the earth that eventually became the Great Lakes. Then they left a sandy soil that developed into perfect beaches.

The Traverse City area has ranges of rolling hills that overlook Lake Michigan and Grand Traverse Bay. Along those hills are hundreds of miles of trails designed for hiking and biking. One resort, Crystal Mountain in Thompsonville, has developed its own chairlift-assisted bike park. Take the chairlift that normally carries skiers to the top of the mountain in winter, then zip down 375 feet of vertical trails to the bottom. A choice of six trails, offer skill levels from beginner to advanced. “The cool part is, with all the offshoots, people can take a different way down every time,” notes race and bike manager, Chris Remy.

On any summer day Grand Traverse Bay is alive with colorful sailboats that dance on the clear blue waters. If you’re on shore without a boat, there’s no need to feel sad. A wide variety of cruise options are available. One of the newest is the Wind Dancer. This 63-foot schooner sails twice a day and prides itself in not only serving locally sourced food, but local wines and spirits as well. Other sailing excursions include the tall ships Manitou, Scout, the Inland Seas School Ship, and Nauticat. Other possibilities include power boat and yacht rentals along with plenty of canoe and kayak options.

The beaches around Traverse City are legendary. They are consistently voted as some of the best in America. Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore was voted by ABC Good Morning America viewers as the most beautiful place in America. The park has 35 miles of Lake Michigan shoreline but also includes 26 inland lakes and 12 miles of rivers and streams. Panama City Beach - Make it yours

Panama City Beach is located in the northwestern part of Florida and is the perfect place for a memorable beach getaway, offering all the amenities desired by those looking for an ideal warm-weather beach vacation. The destination – best known for its 27 miles of sugar-white sands bordering the clear turquoise waters of the Gulf of Mexico – was named the world’s No. 2 “Emerging Destination” by Trip Advisor. With 320 days of sunshine annually, the area has long been favored by travelers (especially Canadians) seeking year-round fun for families.

Make it yours

In addition to its beautiful beaches, Panama City Beach boasts numerous activities for every member of the family. Any time of year is a good time to experience the bounty of nature at PCB’s many parks and beaches. A hidden gem is St. Andrews State Park, which has been named one of the top beaches in the United States. Within the park is Shell Island. This seven-mile-long, undeveloped barrier island runs east to west between the Gulf of Mexico and St. Andrews Bay. Here you’ll find Florida at its most natural, complete with graceful sand dunes, coastal scrub forest, pine hammocks and an inland lake.

Make it natural

Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy hiking along scenic trails, bird-watching, boating, fishing, diving, kayaking, off-road cycling, stand-up paddleboarding and more throughout the year. In addition, Panama City Beach provides distinctive wildlife viewing opportunities. From bottle-nosed dolphins and large schools of baitfish in the Gulf of Mexico, to alligators and egrets in the marshes and dune lakes, wildlife thrives in this area.

Make it flavorful

Panama City Beach’s unique geography makes it an ideal locale for fresh coastal cuisine inflected with Cajun, Gulf Coast and American Southern traditions. PCB is known as the “Seafood Capital of the South,” which should come as no surprise since seafood is the main ingredient for Panama City Beach menus. However, foodies don’t have to go to a restaurant to enjoy the city’s seafood abundance, as some of the best eateries are seafood markets that serve their freshest catch right in the markets. Other dining experiences include everything from family-friendly beachside eateries to premier fine-dining restaurants. In addition to the beach’s authentic, local restaurants, Panama City Beach hosts some of the area’s premier food and drink festivals, including UNwineD – the annual craft beer, wine and spirits festival – as well as Oktoberfest and the annual Food Truck and Craft Beer Festival.

Make it eventful

Discover the sights and sounds of PCB. From live music at our open-air amphitheater to seafood festivals and holiday celebrations, PCB’s schedule has something for everyone! There’s an 800-pound Beach Ball Drop on New Year’s Eve, the libations celebration called UNwineD, and a swashbuckling good time with Pirates of the High Seas Fest. The sugar-white sands provide a beautiful backdrop for Panama City Beach’s outdoor events like summer concerts in the park. Music lovers have the chance to enjoy live performances of America’s favorite adult rock bands or hear the freshest sounds in country and Southern rock music. Be sure to check the special events calendar at VisitPanamaCityBeach.com/events. There’s always something fun going on.

Make it memorable

Panama City Beach delivers an unforgettable vacation for travelers heading South in search of a warm-weather escape. Apart from the serene shoreline, there’s plenty of family fun, heart-pounding action, eco-adventure and romance waiting for you. Agawa Canyon Tour Train comfortable, with WIFI, spacious reclining seats and plenty of legroom, so you can relax while you take in the beautiful surroundings.

Kyoto's Kinkaku-ji, or the Golden Pavilion, is one of 17 locations comprising the Historic Monuments of Ancient Kyoto World Heritage Site. This three-tiered building and its reflecting image on the adjoining "mirror pond" is a breathtaking must-see. The unusual construction has each successive tier designed in a different style. The building's original purpose was to serve the retirement residence of Shogun Ashikaga Yoshimitsu, who ruled from 1368 to 1394. The gold-leaf-adorned structure was converted into a Zen temple shortly after his death.

All aboard for adventure

People dread airports and flying, but rail travel enjoys its own special allure. And unlike flying, there are no arduous security checks, no baggage limitations and no hidden fees. Best of all, is how comfortable it makes your caboose. Take in the passing scenery, stretch out in your seat or wander around and socialize, or meet a mysterious stranger.

Amtrak Coast Starlight

Running daily between Los Angeles and Seattle, the Coast Starlight is one of America's most unforgettable rail journeys. It's 1,377 miles of sheer magnificence, passing through Santa Barbara, the San Francisco Bay Area, Sacramento to Portland and Seattle.

The scenery along the route embraces the dramatic snow-covered peaks of the Cascades and Mount Shasta, lush coniferous forests, fertile valleys and long stretches of rugged Pacific coast.

From Los Angeles to Oakland the train follows the same route as the "El Camino Real," the old Spanish mission road. Santa Barbara is where food, history, wine and sunshine create their own special alchemy. Golden hillsides roll into bluffs overlooking palm-fringed beaches. San Luis Obispo County is an ever-changing panorama of fog-covered cliffs, pounding surf and spouting whales.

Crossing the Oregon/California State Line between Klamath Falls and Dunsmuir, Mount Shasta dominates the horizon. Snow covered for most of the year, some of the most dramatic views are from the train on moonlit nights. As the train makes its ascent into the Cascades it passes through 22 tunnels.

Coach passengers enjoy big, comfortable seats and plenty of legroom. Business Class features seating in a dedicated car, free Wi-Fi, and access to the Metropolitan Lounge in Los Angeles and Portland. The floor-to-ceiling windows in the Sightseer Lounge are perfect for taking in the views.

The train follows the Willamette Valley with the Cascades on one side and the Coast Range on the other and passing Mount Hood, it crosses the Columbia River and onto Washington State.

Japan's Bullet Trains

Japan has everything from the most cutting-edge modernity, to awe-inspiring ancient traditions. High-speed bullet trains known as Shinkansen, were invented in Japan in the 1960s and are known for their punctuality, comfort, safety and efficiency. One of the most popular routes travels from Tokyo to Kyoto, the ancient capital. It takes you on a magic carpet ride past Mount Fuji, to Kyoto's Zen gardens, mysterious Buddhist temples, and tranquil Shinto shrines.

The train, to paraphrase Superman, is faster than a speeding bullet reaching a maximum speed of 320 km/h (199 mph)! Travel between Tokyo and Kyoto can take as little as two hours, depending on which train you take. Cabins are very quiet and

Algoma Central Railway

Nearly a century ago, the boreal forests of the Algoma District drew The Group of Seven, Canada's most celebrated landscape painters. Today, visitors can travel the same rail line that brought them into the vast wild places that inspired them. Departing from Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, the Agawa Canyon Tour Train showcases the rugged beauty of the Canadian Shield. The 114-mile journey weaves stories of the Ojibway and coureur de bois, into the endless sprawl of rocks, rapids and bent white pine. Points of interest include the towering trestles at Bellevue Valley—Mile 19, and Montreal River—Mile 92, offering expansive views of Lake Superior.

From late September through mid October, the woods are painted with crimson, orange and gold. The Agawa River's dark water stands in stark contrast to the flaming forest. Tannic acid leaching into the river from the gnarled roots of cedars turns it the color of raw sienna.

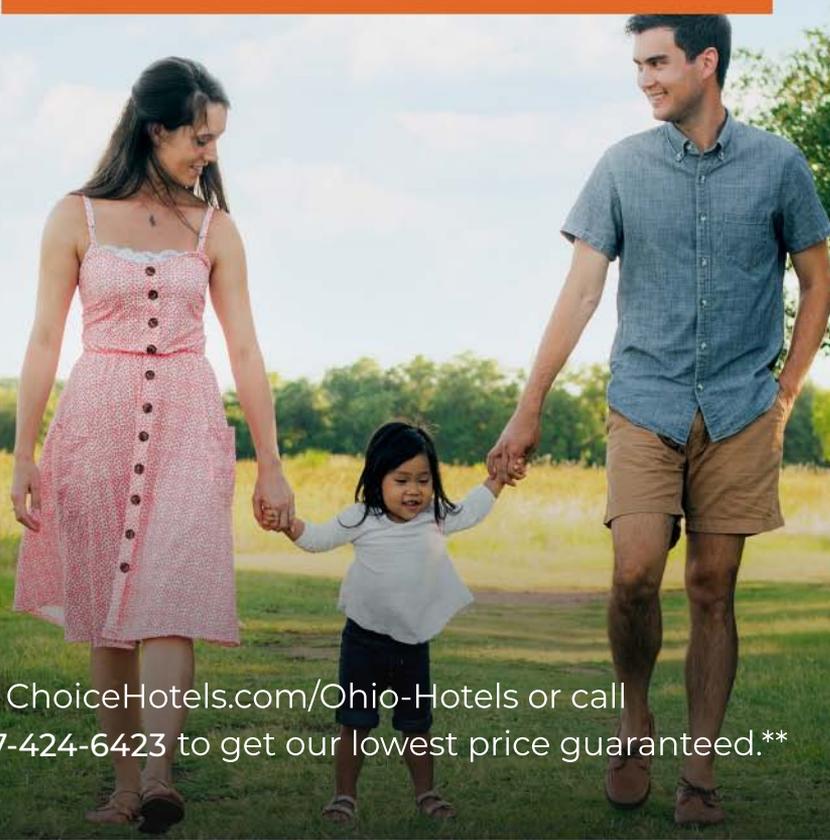

Hugging the top of the canyon wall, the train passes monumental slabs of grey and pink granite with quartz veins glinting like whitecaps in the afternoon sun. These rocks are among the oldest on earth, created more than 1.2 billion years ago and sculpted by the last ice age.

Then, it descends 500 feet to the canyon floor. During a 90-minute stopover visitors can relax by the river, or explore the trails leading to several waterfalls. Bridal Veil Falls is a multi-tiered cascade that tumbles 230 feet down the canyon's eastern slope. Climb the over 300 stairs to a breathtaking lookout perched 250 feet above the canyon floor.

Old Man's Cave

Hocking Hills – Ohio's Natural Crown Jewel

Imagine a vacation where many of the magical experiences come without a price tag ... and priceless moments are around every bend in the road. Hocking Hills is best known for miles and miles of scenic and free hiking trails through the Hocking Hills State Park and Hocking State Forest. But there's so much more!

Take a horseback ride to an authentic cowboy cookout. Rock climbing and rappelling will get your adrenaline pumping. Get a bird's eye view on a zipline canopy or canoe and kayak the historic Hocking River.

Visit a moonshine distillery in historic downtown Logan. The family recipe goes back to the one used to make moonshine during prohibition. As the story goes, Al Capone sent his bootleggers all the way from Chicago to bring the superior quality hooch back to the Windy City's speakeasies.

On August 5 & 6 Logan, Hocking Hills major city, will host the first Big Foot Festival. The Historic Downtown will be filled with Sasquatch enthusiasts, speakers and vendors. There will be plenty of good fun with live music, a Squatch Walk, Squatch & Find and Howling Contest. Be sure to save some time to search for Big Foot in the Hills.

Local musicians take the stage throughout the year at local wineries, breweries and pubs. The Annual Nelsonville Music Festival is set in the region's beautiful rolling hills. This intimate festival offers live music from a variety of genres on multiple stages from national, regional, and local acts. Catch live music on multiple stages September 2 – 4.

Test your endurance at the Annual Hocking Hills Trail Run on September 17. Beginning at the Hocking Hills State Park Naturalist Cabin, the 44th Annual Trail Run winds through vast wooded areas of the Hocking Hills State Park and Hocking State Forest, crossing streams, deep gorges, shimmering waterfalls and lush forests, leading uphill and down. The Hocking Hills Trail Run is the ultimate challenge to the runner's endurance and power of concentration.

The breathtaking beauty of the region inspires a vibrant community of artists and craftsmen. Hocking Hills Artists and Craftsmen Association's Annual Fall Show takes place September 24 & 25. This juried fine arts and craft show features works by talented artists, free admission, free parking and is handicap accessible. Food will be available for purchase. This is the perfect opportunity to find one-of-a-kind gifts and shop local.

Get in touch with your inner artist at the Jack Pine Glass Pumpkin Festival, September 23 to 25. Watch as artists create the famous Jack Pine Glass Pumpkins. Pumpkins and other glass creations will also be available for sale.

Take a step back in time at the Laurelville Fireman's Old Time Festival September 28 to October 1. The volunteer fire department's "Old Time" theme comes from the fact that the festival is held on the same streets as it was during the first festival in 1923. There are homemade pies and cakes sold by local churches and a nightly fish fry. Free entertainment from a stage set up on Main St. takes place each evening.

Ohio's most famous grandma is honored at the Annual Grandma Gatewood Fall Color Hike on October 15. Emma "Grandma" Gatewood was the first woman to solo hike the Appalachian Trail in 1955. She was 67 years young when she completed the 2000+ mile trail. The six-mile trek will lead hikers from Old Man's Cave, to Cedar Falls and back.

As summer gives way to fall Hocking Hills transform into kaleidoscope of autumn colors. Select from a wide assortment of accommodations. From luxury lodges to tiny houses, the "cabins" will cradle you in all the comforts of home but surrounded by the wonders of nature. Pick a treehouse, tipi or yurt for a truly memorable experience.

Pamper yourself at a spa, salt cave or sauna pod. Enjoy classic comfort food at one of the locally owned eateries. Try a flight of wine, beer or even coffee. Bring your appetite for adventure. You'll leave fully satisfied! 🍷

Sandusky County

Northern Ohio is known for Lake Erie fishing, boating, and island adventures but did you know there is a rich and diverse patrimony of history, art and culture in the area as well? The Sandusky County Visitors Bureau had a vision to preserve and share the areas heritage through a new and unique canvas... Barns! The Visitors Bureau created the Historic Barn Mural Trail and partnered with nationally known artist, Scot Hagan, AKA “The Barn Artist” who was commissioned to paint historical depictions on these beautiful old barns.

Agriculture’s roots run deep in Northwest Ohio and many of the barn’s date back to the mid-1800’s and still stand today. Each new mural location starts with a search for an area barn which is carefully chosen based upon location, condition and the history of that area.

Next, a mural is designed specifically for that location and the design of the mural is not only complimentary to the barn but also the history that took place in that town or area.

From historical battles from the war of 1812, to the 19th U.S. President, Rutherford B. Hayes, who resided in Fremont Ohio, there are currently 7 barns that can be seen by following the trail. This self driving adventure takes you through some beautiful Ohio landscapes as you make your way from barn to barn. It takes around an hour and a half, although you may want to stumble upon one of the local restaurants or downtown districts to take in a little small-town shopping. All the communities are safe, welcoming and look forward to seeing guests driving the barn trail!

It is also important to mention and thank the many area sponsors that partnered with the Visitors Bureau to make it

City Life. Outdoor Life.

Unsung heroes of Windsor & Essex County

Meet the region's unsung heroes of hospitality and fashion

Unsung heroes are those everyday people who do extraordinary things. They're the people who greet you when you walk into their places of business. They offer their expertise, lend a sympathetic ear and strive to ensure your experience is always good one. And when you leave the world suddenly looks brighter than when you walked in. These unsung heroes of Windsor and Essex County hospitality and retail sectors personify the spirit of excellence while giving back to their communities in ways big and small.

Mezzo Ristorante & Lounge

The not-to-be-missed dining experience at Mezzo Ristorante & Lounge goes far beyond the innovative, award-winning cuisine. A cool blend of a contemporary, eclectic atmosphere, extensive wine list, specialty cocktails and live entertainment, are the ingredients for one of Windsor's most appealing destinations.

The owners of Mezzo Ristorante & Lounge are accustomed to accolades. They were voted Windsor's Top Choice Italian Restaurant of 2022. They have been a Top Trip Advisor Eatery Pick, and a Trip Advisor Traveler's Choice.

Filip Rocca & Darcy King of Mezzo

Now they can add another title to their growing list of awards, — Good Samaritans. Following a massive surge in Covid across Southwestern Ontario, Mezzo Ristorante partnered with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) to feed thousands of nourishing meals to hospital workers waging war on the frontlines of the health care crisis.

Mezzo owners Filip Rocca and Darcy King jumped at the opportunity to pitch in.

"These health care workers put their lives on the line to fight this epidemic and protect us all. That's something that needs to be recognized and supported in every way we can," said Rocca.

"People were losing their lives every day," added King, "and hospital staff were working under incredibly difficult circumstances to care for people in need."

"IBEW respects what the men and women are doing in our hospitals," said Karl Lovett, CEO of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, "every person from reception and maintenance, to nurses, doctors and security."

Their partnership delivered individually packaged meals to six health care facilities including Windsor Regional Hospital, Hotel Dieu Grace Healthcare, Erie Shores Healthcare in Leamington and Chatham-Kent Health Alliance. Meals were also delivered to hotel rooms where health care workers were quarantined during the pandemic.

While Mezzo staff prepared much of the food, a number of companies came together to support the project. Mor Gro Farm donated tomatoes and cucumbers for the salads, Champion Packaging provided individual containers and Post Packaging of Windsor donated shipping boxes used to transport the food containers to each location.

It's estimated the partnership fed up to 5,000 frontline health care workers and support staff over a three-week period.

In addition to their work during the Covid crisis, Mezzo also hosts an annual Africa soiree to help people in Ghana build water wells schools, provide clothing and more. In January, 2019 Filip Rocca traveled to Africa on a mission.

Riccardo's Italian Restaurant

Delightful aromas drift out of the open kitchen at Riccardo's Italian Restaurant in Amherstburg. This is where renowned Chef Riccardo Maltese weaves his culinary magic. Riccardo came to Canada with his parents from his native Sicily. His godfather operated a celebrated pastry shop in Marsala, specializing in small bites and fine Italian pastries. Riccardo's love of food was evident right from childhood and he was trained under the watchful eye of his father who was a renowned chef. It was those early lessons learned in his hometown that inform his culinary philosophy to this day. Combine fresh ingredients with exacting technique to create imaginative dishes with delightful flavors, while maintaining the Italian spirit of simplicity.

It's that unwavering commitment to quality that connects him to his family heritage. Handmade entrees like Chicken Marsala, Wild Mushroom Agnolotti and Gnocchi are expertly prepared from scratch and served with pride by Riccardo and his team. He tells you that he still feels the invisible hands of his father and grandfather guiding him in the kitchen.

In 1998 he purchased Rosa's in Amherstburg and in 2007, Riccardo's was conceived. The ambiance is comfortable allowing patrons to forget their cares and focus on being together. In warmer weather, the waterfront patio is the ideal spot to drink a glass of wine and take in the sights of the river.

Riccardo's passion for food is only surpassed by his passion for people. His staff is treated like his own family and you'll feel like part of their family when you're there.

Enjoy his hospitality at his Amherstburg location at 238 Dalhousie St., near Navy Yard Park, or allow him to cater your next event. Reservations strongly recommended as they don't want you to be disappointed!

Chef Matthew Johnston of Artisan Grill

BY RENU SAGGAR

at their regional office in London Ontario.

The demands of the new job meant he was only able to get home on weekends and it was hard being away from his wife Shelley, and their new son Joshua. At the same time, he was learning critical management skills and the finer points of running and maintaining a restaurant.

"Moxies was the most influential company in my career. The company held their leaders to a high standard and I learned how important it was to make sure the team you are on is taken care of."

Matthew's second tenure with Moxies lasted almost four years, but his passion for food and need to create his own recipes led him to strike out on his own. He acquired the Artisan Grill in Amherstburg, in the summer of 2012.

His dream, now a reality, Matthew was left with the daunting task of building a strong, detailed oriented service and culinary team. "My goal is to treat my team, guests and suppliers with all the same level of integrity."

While shoring up his Amherstburg location during the Covid 19 shut down, he noticed his former training ground became available to lease.

After extensive planning and negotiations he was able to seal the deal on his second location in the former Moxies space.

Now operating Artisan Grill from two locations, Matthew definitely feels very blessed and happy to have the opportunity to serve his guests.

"We're proud to be creating good paying jobs where people can learn and prosper together. It's important during their time at Artisan Grill, that they learn the value of setting goals and team work."

"This is my passion," he says. It's not what I do ...it's who I am. My dream was to treat people with the utmost respect and offer custom made quality food sourced locally whenever possible. We work with our local partners to provide the best."

Matthew's love for food and the restaurant business has evolved, but one thing that has not changed is his passion for people and the rewarding feeling when providing a great meal, craft cocktails in a clean and welcoming environment.

The artistry of Artisan Grill

As a young man Matthew Johnston knew he was meant to be a chef. As a child he loved to cook with his mother in their kitchen, helping to feed family and any friends that happen to need a meal.

By the time he entered Villanova High School in LaSalle, he had already begun the process of bringing his dream to fruition. He studied subjects like accounting, entrepreneurship, leadership and culinary management.

While in high school he worked at Essex Golf & Country Club as part of a Co-op placement program. This led to his first culinary job as a Steward at Essex Golf.

After graduating with honors Matthew got his first cooking job at the newly opened Moxies Classic Grill at the Devonshire Mall. He rapidly became one of the lead cooks at one of the city's busiest restaurants. Although successful at Moxies, he knew the importance of expanding his horizons. He then joined the world famous Rim Rock Hotel Resort in Banff National Park, as a second cook apprentice. While in Banff Matthew refined his culinary technique before moving on to the Chateau Lake Louise, to complete his apprenticeship. "Lake Louise was one of the most monumental work experiences of my life," he remembers, "their standards were so high, it really instilled that in me to this day."

After spending time in Alberta learning from the masters, Matthew decided to return to his roots in Essex County. In addition to some very talented culinarians, the region is known for fresh produce and local wineries. Returning to Essex County, Matthew operated a small catering business. Later, he worked as a Sous Chef at Armando's and Spago, before becoming the Founding Chef and creator of Seasons Bistro in LaSalle.

Inspired by his favourite celebrity chef Gordon Ramsey, he became an advocate for eating in season because of the health benefits and positive environmental factors. Following the birth of his son, Matthew found himself back at Moxies, drawn by the offer of a Lead Chef position

It's fashion with a passion at A La Mode

A La Mode has been a beautifully curated boutique, and independently run retailer for nearly three decades. Natalia Bezzoubki and her husband Pavel came to Canada from Tadjikistan as immigrants in 1992. They left the country against the backdrop of 1992-97 Tadjikistan Civil War, which eventually claimed 20,000 lives, displaced 600,000 people and devastated the economy.

In 1993, Pavel opened a tailoring and alteration business in Amherstburg. A year later a second location opened in Emeryville. A highly skilled craftsman in men's formal clothing Pavel specialized in exclusive custom tailoring for men. In 2000, Natalia an entrepreneur by nature, opened A La Mode bringing top brand fashion lines for women into the region. A third location opened in Belle River, which later closed. After 12 years of business they reluctantly gave up their second location in Windsor due to the aftermath of Covid 19.

Currently the husband and wife team are operating from the Amherstburg location at 52 Richmond Street, servicing the fashion world for women with top name brands from Europe, Canada and the US. Pavel's Tailor Shop is located on the top floor of the store and Pavel will do on spot alterations for you.

A visit to King's College Chapel is an inspirational experience. Marvel at the incredible medieval stained-glass windows and the largest fan-vaulted ceiling in the world. The finest and most spectacular of Cambridge college chapels, it took over a century to build. If you have a chance to hear the sublime Choir of King's College, you will be in for a treat. Choral Evensong is sung here most days during classes, and is free and open to everyone.

King Henry VI founded King's College. His queen Margaret of Anjou went on to find the equally beautiful Queen's College, one of the oldest and largest at Cambridge. Trinity College was designed by Sir Christopher Wren (of St. Paul's Cathedral fame) and boasts the incredible Wren Library.

The Cambridge University Botanic Garden is a treasure trove of over 8,000 plant species, over 40 acres, including a delightful arboretum. Created in 1831, by Professor John Stevens Henslow (Charles Darwin's mentor) it's a restful way to spend a quiet afternoon.

Visitors can book stay in Cambridge's

It's all academic at Cambridge

Cambridge is brimming with history, tradition and scholarly charm. One of Britain's most beautiful and historic towns, the elegant core is framed by architectural triumphs, surrounded by green spaces and is home to the University of Cambridge's 31 colleges.

Located about 50 minutes north east of London by train, the cobbled streets are filled with the whirl of bicycles, and packed with students, restaurants, a thriving market and proper British pubs. The compact urban core is perfect for exploring ancient colleges, winding streets and the picturesque "Backs" (of the colleges), alongside the River Cam.

Cambridge was founded in 1209, making it the world's fourth-oldest surviving university. Visitors can follow in the footsteps of famous alumni like Sir Isaac Newton, Charles Darwin and Professor Stephen Hawking, to name but a few. Poets, philosophers, scientists, medics, engineers, prime ministers and Nobel Peace Prize winners have all left their mark here. Since 1904 a staggering 121 affiliates of the University of Cambridge have been awarded the Nobel Prize.

The Bridge of Sighs

hallowed halls outside of term time too – so you experience a taste of university life. Dine in the 1590 Graham Storey Room and stroll around the ageless campus. It's the complete student experience without hitting the books!

The River Cam runs through the heart of Cambridge enabling you to enjoy fantastic views of the idyllic Cambridge College “Backs” from the comfort of a traditional Cambridge Punt (flat-bottomed boat). King's College Chapel, The Wren Library at Trinity College, the Mathematical Bridge and the Bridge of Sighs, are just some of the famous Cambridge landmarks you can expect to see. The Gothic Revival Bridge of Sighs was built in 1831 and crosses the River Cam between the college's Third Court and New Court.

Local legend has it that the Mathematical Bridge was designed and built by Sir Isaac Newton without the use of nuts or bolts. The unusual wooden footbridge was actually constructed in 1749, 22 years after Newton's demise.

The free-admission Fitzwilliam Museum, houses world-class collections of art and antiquities spanning centuries and civilizations. Kettle's Yard's peerless collection of 20th century and contemporary art, is one of the country's finest galleries. Take a journey through 4.5 billion years of earth's existence at the Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences.

An imposing lamppost in the centre of Parker's Piece, bears the words Reality Checkpoint – believed to be in reference to the end of the university “bubble” and the beginning of the real world, aka the rest of the city.

Grab a pint at the Eagle Pub, the birthplace of the discovery of DNA and a haven for WW2 airmen. Watch time go by at the Corpus Clock, at the corner of Bene't and Trumpington Streets. Unlike most clocks, this one is at street level so it's easy to appreciate the clock's 24-carat gold face. Then there's the Chronophage, a mechanical grasshopper whose name is Ancient Greek for “time eater.” As each minute passes, his jaw opens and he gobbles it down.

Fitzbillies on Trumpington Street, has been tempting taste buds for over 100 years. A must-try is the legendary Chelsea Bun: syrupy, deliciously spiced and completely addictive.

Theatre lovers will delight in a variety of performances ranging from student theatre to touring and West End shows.

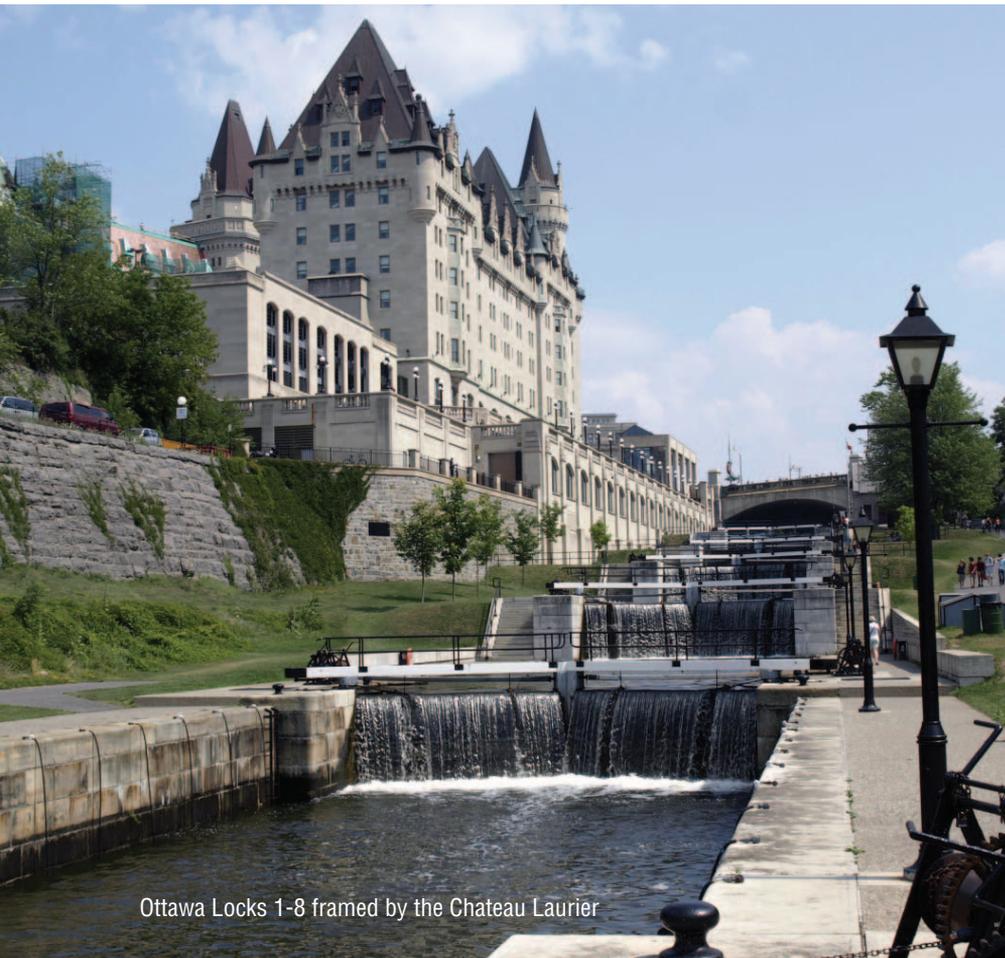

The celebrated Cambridge Footlights comedy troupe has spawned stars like John Cleese and Emma Thompson and can be seen performing at the ADC Theatre. In the summer, Cambridge buzzes with al fresco musical performances in the parks and green spaces as part of the annual Summer in the City program of events.

Once you've seen the famous colleges and visited the city's museums, there are plenty more area gems to discover in Cambridgeshire. Fans of the popular PBS television series Grantchester, will be happy to know that the picturesque English village actually exists. Approximately two miles from Cambridge, it's an easy walk from the city core, or you can take a punt all the way to Grantchester Meadows from the Mill Lane punt station.

The timeless village features a magnificent medieval church, quaint thatched cottages and a pool where Lord Byron used to swim. Cows wander across riverside paths without a care in the world. The Grantchester Tour is a unique walking tour that visits 15 filming locations featured in the show, including the church, the meadows, pubs, High Street and homes. 📍

Each season offers different ways to experience the beautiful Rideau Canal – Ontario's only UNESCO World Heritage Site. During warmer months, stroll or cycle along the canal's scenic pathways, or take a relaxing eco-friendly cruise on its waters. You can also explore the water on your own by renting a kayak, canoe, stand up paddleboard or paddleboat.

During the winter months, the frozen waterway becomes the world's largest skating rink – the Rideau Canal Skateway. This unique skating experience is free, open day and night (weather permitting), and stretches 7.8 kilometres (4.8 miles) through downtown Ottawa.

Ottawa is a mecca for culture vultures, and home to seven of nine national museums. Canada's capital provides unparalleled access to the country's historical and cultural treasures. The Canadian Museum of History is Canada's most visited museum for good reason – it's home to the world's largest indoor collection of totem poles.

Ottawa is a capital affair

Ottawa is home to some of Canada's most historical and iconic sites, must-see national museums, a thriving culinary scene and an abundance of bucket list activities waiting to be checked off. Best of all, most attractions are within a 20-minute walk from each other in the downtown area, making it a breeze to get around. Here are just some of the many places of interest you don't want to miss on your next trip.

The most iconic site in Canada's capital, Parliament Hill, sits on a scenic perch overlooking the Ottawa River. Admire the three neo-Gothic-style federal government buildings, which were built between 1859 and 1927. Guided tours of Parliament, which were suspended due to Covid 19, resumed on May 20, 2022. The grounds are open for the public to explore and hold special free events year-round including yoga, the Changing of the Guard ceremony and multimedia shows.

While the Centre Block's interior undergoes a decade-long rehabilitation, you can take free guided tours of two sites temporarily housing Parliamentary Chambers: the House of Commons in

Canada's Parliament Buildings

The National Gallery of Canada houses the most comprehensive collection of Canadian art, including the Group of Seven and excellent collections of Indigenous, Asian and International works. The giant spider sculpture in the courtyard is popular spot for selfies.

The castle-like Canadian Museum of Nature is not just a cool-looking historic building, but inside you'll find dinosaur fossils, whale skeletons, an Arctic gallery, mammals, minerals, birds, insects and flora.

The Canada Science and Technology Museum, which reopened in 2017, after extensive renovations, combines interactive and hands-on elements with cutting-edge technologies like augmented reality. It's never been more fun to celebrate Canada's long history of scientific and technological achievements!

Journey into Canada's world of air and space at the Canada Aviation and Space Museum. The expansive, hangar-like building is home to the most extensive aviation collection in the country covering everything from the humble beginnings of flight, to the sophisticated aerospace industry we know today.

The ByWard Market is one of the oldest and largest farmers' markets in Canada – and takes its name from Bytown, Ottawa's original name. The eclectic neighbourhood's four square blocks are packed with fresh food, maple syrup and craft vendors, as well as unique eateries, pubs, galleries, bistros, coffee shops and boutiques.

By day, nibble on a tasty Beaver Tail at its original stand located on George Street. Don't worry, no beavers are harmed making them. These hand-made pastries are served up with a variety of toppings at the permanent kiosk in the ByWard Market, or at special events throughout the year. In the evening sip a craft cocktail or local craft beer on a rooftop patio while taking in the view. You'll also find fun souvenirs and gifts as well as Canadian fashion, jewellery and housewares in the many shops. Don't forget to pose for a selfie with the giant OTTAWA letters on the York Street Plaza near Sussex Drive.

The city is full of green spaces where visitors can admire the changing flora spring through fall—and most are free! Major's Hill Park is located between the historic Fairmont Château Laurier hotel and the National Gallery of Canada. You'll find some beautiful views of Parliament Hill, the Rideau Canal locks and the Ottawa River. A stroll along the pathways takes you past mature trees, lush flower gardens, historic statues and interpretation panels.

The majestic Ottawa River is one of the city's most photographed sites and arguably one of the best places to capture stunning sunset views year-round. Walk, bike, or drive across the bridges which link Ottawa, Ontario to Gatineau, Quebec or explore the multi-use pathways that run along each bank and lead to beautiful sites like city beaches and balanced rock sculptures. You can also ride the electric Aqua-Taxi, or partake in a variety of sightseeing cruises. Whichever way you choose to experience the Ottawa River, you are in for some stellar scenery.

The river is also an international mecca for water sports. Enjoy epic whitewater adventures like an urban rafting excursion, or head just over an hour's drive west from downtown Ottawa, for some of the world's best whitewater rafting, including Class V rapids. Whitewater kayaking is also available in the city and in the countryside. For some flat water fun, stand up paddleboard or canoe in the shadow of Parliament Hill, Rideau Falls and the Ottawa Locks! 🚣 beach that established Cancun's reputation as a resort, while Playa Las Perlas is a favorite with boogie boarders. Playa Tortugas is a popular public beach and a departure point to sleepy Isla Mujeres or Island of Women.

One of the most idyllic spots in the Caribbean, the tiny island is home to a turtle sanctuary and the remains of a notorious pirate's lair. The Cave of the Sleeping Sharks, is one of nature's most bizarre underwater encounters. Fierce Tiger sharks lie motionless 65-feet below the surface, a phenomenon caused by the cave's oxygen rich water, which acts like a narcotic on the soporific sharks.

Cancun's waters are legendary for their clarity with dazzling schools of blue neons hovering among the rocks and piers. The otherworldly Underwater Museum, opened in 2010, and features more than 500 life-size figures displayed in less than 10 feet of water.

Diners will find everything from fresh seafood to traditional Mayan cuisine with dishes like Cochinita Pibil, suckling pig baked in banana leaves with a rich annatto sauce. El Centro or downtown is where the locals live and the best place for local cuisine. Savor spicy Mexican food in the street stands, food courts and restaurants in Palapas Park, where guests can quaff

Cancun is your place in the sun

Cancun might best be described as a beach with an island in the middle. Centuries ago, Mayan emperors traveled here to get some R&R. Today, this cosmopolitan resort perched on the limestone shelf on Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula is among the premier vacation spots on the planet.

Luxury hotels line the Hotel Zone, a seahorse-shaped oasis connected by two causeways and flanked by the tranquil Nichupte Lagoon and the restless Caribbean Sea. People watchers can take a stroll on a palm-fringed promenade hugging the shoreline.

Cancun's twelve miles of beach are celebrated for their turquoise waters and powdery white sand. All are open to the public and anyone with the inclination can walk from one end to the other. You can either hike along the northern shore by the calm waters of Bahía de Mujeres, or follow the Caribbean Sea on the eastern shore. The sand here is as fine as talcum powder and surprisingly cool thanks to a limestone composition that doesn't retain the heat from the sun.

Playa Ballenas is the magnificent white

Agua de Jamaica (hibiscus flower juice) and authentic Yucatán cuisine.

Shoppers can bargain for authentic Mexican handicrafts, silver, Maya-inspired art, colorful blankets and clothing. The majority of open-air markets are located in El Centro, the downtown area. The Mercados on Tulum Avenue are a great places to practice your bargaining skills.

The Hotel Zone is where you'll find most of the large all-inclusive and luxury hotels. Resting on one of the most beautiful white sand beaches in the Caribbean, the Sunset Royal's privileged location provides close and easy access to the best of Cancun's entertainment, nightclubs, restaurants and shopping.

Hacienda Tres Ríos Resort Spa & Nature Park is an environmentally responsible luxury resort that offers exclusive access to the Tres Ríos Nature Park in the Riviera Maya, with it's comprehensive all-inclusive plan. Members and guests can tour mangrove forests, swim, snorkel, or kayak along winding rivers or simply unwind on the resort's tranquil beaches.

The northern part of Hotel Zone is called Punta Cancun and is party central with plenty of clubs, late-night eats and tourist bars. Party animals will want to take full advantage of Cancun's legendary nightlife at hot spots like Coco Bongo, a multilevel madhouse full of mammoth video screens, brilliantly costumed dancers, Cirque du Soleil style acrobats, celebrity impersonators, conga lines, confetti canons and balloons.

The Ballet Folklórico de Cancun weaves history with dazzling choreography in a heady rush of clicking heels, dazzling costumes and fiery rhythms. This dinner show is performed nightly at the Cancun Convention Center and features music and dance from every corner of Mexico.

The Maya are a metaphor for all the magic said to reside inside the green margins of the Yucatan jungle. While Europe still slumbered in the Dark Ages, the People of the Jaguar mastered mathematics and astronomy.

It's easy to appreciate the extraordinary civilization that flourished on the Yucatan Peninsula more than 1,000 years ago. Cancun is close to several Mayan archeological sites including El Ray, once an important ancient Maya trade route, located right in the resort area. The Maya Museum located in Cancun Center, houses 350 artifacts, mostly from in and around Cancun. Tulum is located about 80-miles south of the city. Considered by many to be the most beautiful of all Mayan sites, Tulum is the only Mayan city built next to the sea, which provides a spectacular backdrop to its well-preserved ruins.

A modern day wonder in Tulum, is Daniel Popper's "Ven a la Luz" or Come To The Light, an imposing thirty-three foot tall sculpture made of steel, wood, rope and greenery.

Halfway between Cancun and Tulum is Xcaret, an eco-archeological theme park. This 150-acre facility is home to Mayan ruins, an underground river and cenotes — limestone grottoes filled with limpid pools filled with cool, clear groundwater. Xcaret also boasts a botanical garden and a Museum of Mayan Culture. The park offers a unique marine mammal area where visitors can swim with dolphins or mingle with sting rays.

Chichen-Itza, about 120-miles southwest of the city, covers about six square miles and is dominated by the iconic, 75-foot tall Kulkulkan step pyramid, which functions as a giant solar calendar. During the equinox, the sunlight sends an image of a serpent undulating down the temple walls. 🐍
