In these challenging times, we're here for you.

A message from the President of Isotherm Mechanical Inc.

The past couple of weeks have been challenging for our clients, our employees and our communities. The anxiety and stress is real for everyone: businesses are dealing with a rapidly changing environment, people in our communities are facing self-isolation and possible layoffs, and our governments are diligently trying to do their part to offer support, guidance, and care. We are reaching out to let you know that we are here to help. We understand your challenges and we are committed to doing our part to support you and help you manage in this unprecedented environment.

We are working with our customers on a needs basis and as always, responding to your needs on an emergent timeframe. We are currently accepting work orders for regular maintenance or sudden breakdowns and repairs. We will be there to support your business at a moments notice.

If you require service to keep your essential business up and running in this unprecedented time, please reach out to 519-240-7425 or 226-988-7770 and we will arrange an appropriate time to come and discuss your needs.

We appreciate your support during this time and we hope to be back to full service once this temporary health crisis has been resolved.

Best regards,

Dan Brueckner, President and CEO
