

AT•COURT THIRTEEN and ARBITRATION PLACE Establish Arbitration Place Vienna AT•COURT THIRTEEN, Bringing Fully Integrated Hearing Services to Austria

VIENNA / TORONTO, July 7, 2026 — AT•COURT THIRTEEN, Vienna’s recently launched dedicated arbitration and hearing centre, and Arbitration Place, a leading international provider of integrated dispute resolution support services, are pleased to announce a strategic cooperation establishing Arbitration Place Vienna AT•COURT THIRTEEN.

Through this collaboration, Arbitration Place will deploy its full suite of integrated dispute resolution support services at AT•COURT THIRTEEN’s Vienna facility, providing users and clients with seamless access to a comprehensive, end-to-end hearing support services. Pioneered in Canada and successfully expanded across the United States and internationally, Arbitration Place combines a roster of internationally renowned arbitrators and mediators, world-class hearing facilities, and a complete suite of hearing, technology, reporting, and case management services.

AT•COURT THIRTEEN operates a purpose-built arbitration and hearing centre in the heart of Vienna, designed to accommodate domestic and international dispute resolution proceedings, hearings, and meetings. By combining this state-of-the-art facility with Arbitration Place’s globally recognized service model, the cooperation establishes a fully integrated offering for arbitration users in the region and further strengthens Vienna’s position as a premier seat for international dispute resolution.

As part of the arrangement, Arbitration Place will act as AT•COURT THIRTEEN’s in-house provider of hearing support and related services, delivering a single point of contact for all operational aspects of proceedings. This includes:

- Real-time court reporting and transcription, including human and AI-supported services;
- Virtual, hybrid, and in-person hearing management;
- Evidence presentation and document management;
- Interpretation, translation, and legal videography; and
- Technical and on-site hearing support.

This model is designed to streamline proceedings, reduce complexity, and ensure the highest professional standards, enabling tribunals and parties to focus entirely on the substantive aspects of their cases.

The launch of Arbitration Place Vienna at AT•COURT THIRTEEN is in line with Arbitration Place’s global expansion plans and adds Vienna to a growing international platform that now includes Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, New York, Miami, the Cayman Islands, São Paulo, and now also Vienna.

“This cooperation represents an important milestone for AT•COURT THIRTEEN as we continue to establish Vienna as a leading venue for international arbitration,” said Alice Fremuth-Wolf, Managing Director, ATC13. “By partnering with Arbitration Place, we are able to offer users a truly comprehensive, integrated hearing solution that combines excellent facilities with top-quality service delivery,” emphasized Michael Hofstätter, Managing Director, ATC13.

“The establishment of Arbitration Place Vienna at AT•COURT THIRTEEN is an important next step in Arbitration Place’s global expansion strategy,” said Jeffrey Mandell, CEO, Arbitration Place. “As we continue to build a connected international platform across leading arbitration markets, we are especially pleased to partner with AT•COURT THIRTEEN, whose exceptional facility and experienced team reflect the same commitment to quality, professionalism, and service excellence that defines Arbitration Place. Together, we look forward to bringing our signature fully integrated model to Vienna and delivering the seamless, high-calibre experience that clients, counsel, and tribunals expect from Arbitration Place worldwide.”
