

Acrylic Display Cases

Custom Acrylic Display Cases are an effective way to present valuable items to customers while maintaining their attention at a close distance. Our in house designers can build a case to nearly any specification of size, security or design. These display cases feature

- Inside shelves for multiple product levels
- Lockable door for enhanced security
- Metal and acrylic hinges for a seamless and smooth door motion
- Printed panels for advertisements and graphics

Your client can confidently display merchandise like jewelry, electronics, medicinals and more. Whether displaying these cases in a shop, school or other business, your client can be assured that their products will have an intriguing, safe and high quality case that they are being displayed in!
